After having bestowed the High Patronage of the President of the Republic of Italy on the GJC, President Giorgio Napolitano ^[1] has now presented these three medals. At each event, this is an eagerly awaited recognition, as nearly one third of all Global Junior Challenge ^[2] projects are presented by Italian schools. The winners will receive the award directly from President Napolitano at the Quirinale ^[3], the Italian presidential palace.

During the last edition, the following projects received this special award:

- I'm at Home, but I'm at School - Participating via Webcam ^[4], Rome
- On-line Didactics for a Sustainable Planet ^[5], Terni
- New Technologies, Ancient Values: Radio K2 ^[6], Verbania
