The final event of the Global Junior Challenge 2017 ^[1] coincides with the working conference of Project #MSLE, organised in collaboration with the City of Rome, Municipality of Sheffield (United Kingdom), Municipality of Riga (Latvia), Municipality of Gijón (Spain) and the Knut Hahn School Institute (Sweden).

For the first time, the GJC will host five European delegations (Latvia, Italy, UK, Spain and Sweden) of young men and women, aged 14-19, the Digital Ambassadors of Project Make: Learn: Share: Europe ^[2], implemented as part of the Erasmus+ Programme.

The labs, which will be held in English, are reserved for the 25 Digital Ambassadors and will be held by Italian Digital Ambassadors on Robotics, Digital Making, Virtual Reality and the Internet of Things.
